Museum Labels

You have been asked by the museum to write labels for some of the objects in the Phoenicia gallery. The trouble is you only have twenty words to write about each one. Carefully choose what you are going to say about each object. Remember to say what you think it is and what it was used for. Point out anything unusual about it!

My object is (draw a sketch)

My label will say:

A large empty rectangular box for writing the label text.
